0240-3-3-.01 INSTITUTION OF POLICY STATEMENT.

- (1) The University of Memphis students are citizens of the State, local, national governments, and of the academic community. They are, therefore, expected to conduct themselves as law-abiding members of each community at all times. Admission to the University carries with it special privileges and imposes special responsibilities apart from those rights and duties enjoyed by non-students. In recognition of this special relationship that exists between the institution and the academic community which it seeks to serve, the Tennessee Board of Regents has, as a matter of public record, instructed "the presidents of the universities and colleges under its jurisdiction to take such action as may be necessary to maintain campus conditions ... and to preserve the integrity of the institution and its educational environment."
- (2) The following regulations (known as the Code of Student Conduct) have been developed by a committee made up of faculty, students, and staff utilizing input from all facets of the University Community in order to provide a secure and stimulating atmosphere in which individual and academic pursuits may flourish. Students are, however, subject to all national, state and local laws and ordinances. If a student's violation of such laws or ordinances also adversely affects the University's pursuit of its educational objectives, the University may enforce its own regulations regardless of any proceeding instituted by other authorities. By the same token, violations of any section of the Code may subject a student to disciplinary measures by the University whether or not such conduct is simultaneously violative of state, local or national laws.

- (d) Hearing before an Administrator - If a student chooses to admit violation of a provision of the Code, the student may either accept the sanction proposed by the Office of Student Judicial and Ethical Programs, or choose to have a hearing before another administrator appointed by the Vice President of Student Affairs regarding his or her sanction. University community. In such cases, no sanction may be imposed unless the student has been found guilty in a court of law or has declined to contest such charges, although not actually admitting guilt.

 - 1. To determine whether the original hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and evidence presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the accused student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a rebuttal of those allegations.
 - 2. To determine whether the sanction(s) imposed were appropriate for the violation of the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities that the student or organization was found to have committed.
 - 3. To consider new evidence, sufficient to alter a decision, or other relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such evidence and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the original hearing.
- (e) The University Appeals Committee, after granting the petition for appeal, shall have the authority to:
 - 1. Sustain the decision of the hearing body, including any sanction(s);
 - 2. Sustain the decision of the hearing body, but impose a lesser sanction;
 - 3. Remand the case to the hearing body for further consideration on the specific issues; or
 - 4. Reverse the decision of the hearing body.
- (f) A student may petition the President for review of the appropriateness of any determination of any judicial hearing body, which has been affirmed or sustained by the University Appeals Committee, including those decisions with modification by the University Appeals Committee within five (5) working days of notice of the decision of the University Appeals Committee.

(5) Victim's Rights

- (a) Some actions that violate the University rules involve victimization of one or more students by another student(s). This behavior may include acts of theft or damage to property, physical violence, and other acts that endanger the safety of others in the University community. If a student has filed a complaint and is identified as a victim, that student is entitled to certain rights during the disciplinary process.
 - (b) If a complaint is filed with the Office of Judicial Affairs or with the Department of Residence Life, it is important to remember that the accused student is being charged with violating a University rule or regulation; therefore, the University is ultimately responsible for initiating charges, imposition of sanctions if the charged student chooses to admit the violation, implementation of the hearing process, and determination of sanctions following a finding of guilt. Although a victim's input may be sought during the disciplinary process, the ultimate disposition of the case rests with the University. If a victim withdraws his or her complaint during the course of the disciplinary proceeding, the University reserves the right to proceed with the case on the basis of evidence other than the testimony of the victim.
 - (c) During the course of a disciplinary proceeding, victims have the following rights:
 - 1. To meet with the Office of Judicial and Ethical Programs to discuss the disciplinary process.
 - 2. To submit a written account of the alleged incident.
 - 3. To be advised of the date, time and location of the disciplinary hearing, and to request rescheduling of the hearing for good cause.
 - 4. To be accompanied by an advisor of the victim's choosing during the hearing process, although the advisor will not be permitted to speak for the victim during the hearing.
 - 5. To testify as a witness during the hearing.
 - 6. To decline to testify, with knowledge that such action could result in dismissal of the University's charges for Lack of evidence.
 - 7. To submit a written impact statement to the hearing panel for consideration during the sanctioning phase of the disciplinary process.
- (6) Mediation
- (a) Purpose

The mediation process provides an alternative to the formal hearing process. It is intended to allow the two people involved in an alleged sexual assault to discuss their respective understandings of the incident with the assistance of a trained mediator. Mediation is designed to encourage each person to speak directly with the other and to accept personal responsibility where appropriate. Its goal is to facilitate the resolution of the incident to the satisfaction of both persons involved.
 - (b) Filing a Complaint

Any student considering herself or himself a victim of sexual assault by another student at The University of Memphis may choose mediation as one alternative for confronting an alleged perpetrator. Requests for mediation should be filed with the Assistant Dean of Students in the Office of Judicial Affairs.

Because both parties must voluntarily enter into mediation, the Assistant Dean will work with both parties to determine their willingness to participate in mediation and to verify that mediation is their choice among the alternatives provided by the University's student disciplinary system.

(c) Assignment of a Mediator

Once both parties have agreed to mediation, the Assistant Dean will assign an experienced mediator to the case. Either party may challenge the choice of mediator for cause, and the Assistant dean may then choose to assign a different mediator. The mediator will contact both parties to set the date, time, and location of the mediation session(s). The Assistant Dean will assign a mediator within two (2) weeks of the agreement to participate in mediation, and the mediation session(s) should be completed within three (3) weeks of the assignment of the mediator.

(d) The Mediation Process

The only parties who will be present at the mediation session(s) will be the two (2) persons directly involved in the incident and the mediator. During the mediation process the mediator will:

1. Ask the parties to relate their respective versions of the incident in question, including both factual information and their feelings;
2. Identify key issues that emerge in the first step and make these known to both persons;
3. Seek the agreement of both parties on the issues as they have been identified or as they need to be modified;
4. Facilitate discussion between the two parties to consider each issue more completely and generate solutions for each, and
5. Work with both parties to develop a written document that will include a statement of agreement on each issue.

(e) Mediation Outcome

1. The statement of agreement shall become a part of the contract that both parties will sign at the completion of the mediation process. Any activity or behavior that either party has agreed to perform following the mediation shall be included in the contract. Any outcome of mediation must be agreed to by both parties. The contract shall be kept on file in the Office of Judicial Affairs.

The signed agreement will be forwarded to the Assistant Dean of Students for certification. Once approved, violation of the agreement by either party may result in the imposition of disciplinary sanction(s), including suspension from the University. If either party believes that the terms of the agreement have been violated, he or she may advise the Assistant Dean, and the Assistant Dean shall investigate the alleged violation. The student accused of the violation may request a hearing on the alleged violation before the Assistant Dean. If the alleged violation is proved, the Assistant Dean shall impose disciplinary sanction(s) against the violator.

2. Appeal

Because participation in the mediation process is entirely voluntary and the final result is a product of mutual agreement, the outcome of mediation, including the terms of the mediation agreement is not appealable. A finding of a violation of the mediation agreement is appealable, however, to the University Appeals Committee pursuant to the procedure outlined in 0240-3-3-.04, subparagraph (b) of these rules.

3. Alternative Procedures

If either party is dissatisfied with the mediation process at any step prior to the signing of a written agreement, that party may request that the mediation process cease. Once the mediation process for a particular incident has been discontinued, it cannot be reinitiated. The sexual assault charge may be pursued by the complainant within the University discipline system as provided for in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities in the Student Handbook.

(f) Confidentiality

In order to promote honest, direct communication between the parties themselves and the mediator, and to facilitate the completion of agreed-upon terms, all information shared in the mediation process must remain confidential. In the event that a hearing is requested after some part of the mediation process has taken place, information disclosed during the mediation process may be admitted in the University's investigation or hearing processes only by the party who made the original disclosure. The Office of Student Judicial and Ethical Programs will maintain copies of the original complaint, the mediation agreement, and any documentation concerning completion of the agreed-upon activities or behavior. Other records generated during the mediation process will be destroyed.

(7) Student Organization Disciplinary Procedures.

 - (i) During the preliminary conference, organizational leaders will be allowed to provide their version of the alleged violation and to review and discuss their rights and responsibilities.

1. The Associate Dean for Student Judicial and Ethical Programs may suspend on an interim basis any or all of the activities of a student organization while the organization is under investigation or engaged in the disciplinary hearing process for alleged violations of University rules and regulations.  - (i) When the continued activity of the organization poses a threat of further violations of University rules or regulations and/or state or federal law.
 - (ii) When the continued activity of the organization poses a threat or the creation of a condition, which endangers the health, safety, or property of the University or members of the University community.
 - (iii) When the continued activity of the organization poses a threat to disruption of or interference with the normal operations of the University.
2. Organizations shall be notified in writing of their interim suspension and entitled to a hearing within ten (10) class days of notification. The interim suspension of a student organization shall continue until the disciplinary process has concluded or the Associate Dean of Student Judicial and Ethical Programs determines that the interim suspension is no longer necessary.

3. The Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students and the appropriate governing body will have ten (10) working days to respond to the appeal.
4. Grounds for appeals are limited to newly discovered evidence that was not presented at the hearing if the evidence could not have been discovered prior to the hearing, procedural errors, or that the sanction is disproportionately severe. After granting the petition for appeal, the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students and the Associate Dean for Student Involvement and Leadership shall have the authority to:
 - (i) Uphold the decision of the hearing body, including any sanction(s).
 - (ii) Uphold the decision of the hearing body, but impose a lesser sanction.
 - (iii) Remand the case to the hearing body for further consideration on the specific issues.
 - (iv) Reverse the decision of the hearing body.

(1) Registration

- (a) Persons eligible to operate vehicles on the campus of The University of Memphis, including employees and students enrolled in credit courses to whom a state issued distinctive license plate or placard for disabled drivers and passengers has been issued, must register with the Parking Office. Any student or employee who obtains vehicle registration through misrepresentation may be subject to disciplinary and/or administrative action.
- (b) No vehicle is considered to be properly registered until The University of Memphis parking permit (hangtag) is visibly displayed from the inside rear view mirror post or affixed to the exterior upper center of the front windshield. (Taping permit inside of the window is not acceptable.) Parking permits must be affixed to motorbikes or motorcycles in a position where numbers may be easily read. Parking permits are issued in the form of a hangtag or bumper sticker to be displayed on all vehicles authorized to park on property owned and/or leased by The University of Memphis. Permits are issued on a three-year cycle with validation stickers designated for student enrollment each semester. General parking permits allow parking only in general parking lots. Resident parking permits allow parking in one resident gated parking lot and ungated resident areas. Disabled/handicap permits allow parking access to all parking lots and handicapped parking spaces.
- (c) A temporary parking permit must be obtained for any vehicle being driven by a student, faculty, staff or employee when his or her parking registration permit is not available. Temporary parking permits may be obtained from Parking Services for a period of time not to exceed two (2) weeks. A fee is charged for temporary parking permits.

(3) Sale of Permits. Authorized Faculty, staff, students and employees may purchase only one parking permit per semester, and they will be sold according to the priority as follows:

(a) Priority Parking.

- 2. Students.

Parking lots designated in the Priority group are reserved for the exclusive use of those persons assigned to that lot, and are sold to students on a first come/first serve basis.

(b) On-Campus Resident Parking.

Parking areas designated in the Resident Parking group are restricted for the exclusive use of persons assigned to the Resident Parking area. Assignments will approximate one and one-half parking permits per parking space and are sold on a first come/first serve basis. Residency status will be confirmed.

(c) General Permit Parking.

Parking areas designated in the General Permit group are available to any person eligible to operate a vehicle on campus: students, faculty, staff, vendors and visitors with the proper permit.

(d) Physically Disabled Parking.

Designated disabled parking areas are available to persons with physical disabilities who have a registered University of Memphis parking permit and a valid disabled parking permit issued to the student or employee by a State Department of Safety. No additional fee will be assessed to Students for physically disabled parking permits. The priority permit parking fee will be assessed to Faculty/Staff for physically disabled parking permits.
